

Waste Tire Workshop

Natchez Trace State Park

April 5, 2017

Day	Time	Instructor	Course/Description and Objectives
Wednesday April 5, 2017	9:00 – 9:30 a.m.	Bob Fletcher Environmental Consultant, DSWM	"Welcome and Overview" Welcome workshop participants. Meet and greet among attendees. Review the tire statutory requirements. Relationship of Department of Revenue and Department of Environment & Conservation.
	9:30 – 10:00 a.m.	Thomas McGill Office of Sustainable Practice	"Tire Environmental Fund" A discussion on how money is received from new car sales, the grants derived from those funds, and how these funds help develop new market sources for beneficial use of scrap tires. Objective: Understanding the Tire Environmental Fund grant program, objectives, operation and how it indirectly helps the county tire programs.
	10:00 – 10:30 a.m.	Bob Fletcher Environmental Consultant, DSWM	"Beneficial Uses of Waste Tires" Discuss beneficial uses of scrap tire and to build awareness of additional options that may assist local counties gain the most value from a problem material. Objective: Improved local tire program management by understanding beneficial uses and options.
	10:30 – 11:30 a.m.	Judge Larry Potter, Shelby County Environmental Court	"Challenges with Waste Tire Disposal" A discussion on the enforcement aspect of scrap tire management and how counties can apply principals that eliminate tire piles. Judge Potter is a highly recognized presenter on waste and scrap tires, trash and enforcement associated with the Environmental Court in Shelby County. He will share strategies to help counties protect against unpermitted scrap tire piles. Objective: How to use enforcement process to effectively minimize unpermitted scrap tire piles.
	11:30 – 1:00 p.m.	Lunch	Lunch buffet provided for all attendees
	1:00 – 2:00 p.m.	Dexter Matthews Liberty Tire  Lincoln Young Rockwood Recycling	"The Road to Beneficial Use; Waste Tire Processor Discussion" Tire processors Liberty Tire and Rockwood Recycling provide insight into the background that impacts pricing, markets, and operation from the other side of the collection process. Objective: Better Understanding of tire end markets and how they impact county tire programs.
	2:00 – 2:30 p.m.	Jerry Branham, Nashville Environmental Field Office	"Environmental Field Office: Enforcement of Unpermitted Waste Tire Pile Sites" A walk through the Department's tire enforcement resources and program methodology to better understand options in cleaning up Unpermitted Waste Tire Pile Sites. Objective: Understanding of enforcement resources available from TDEC to assist county programs in managing Unpermitted Waste Tire Pile Sites.
	2:30 – 3:00 p.m.	Rudy Collins, Jackson Environmental Field Office	"Facilitated Discussion on the successes and challenges with various tire programs across the state" Allow for facilitated discussion on waste tires to share ideas with new staff members at solid waste facilities. Objective: Identify new ideas to improve state and county tire programs.
	3:00 – 3:30 p.m.	Bob Fletcher	"Final Lessons Learned and Closing Comments" A wrap up discussion on topics presented. Objective: Review the overall program and deliverables identified during the workshop and if applicable determine next steps.